

Government Consulting Internship Program

- Are you a graduate student looking for the right internship?
- Are you interested in learning more about Federal Government consulting?
- Would you like an internship that's PAID?

About the Internship

M Powered Strategies, a Washington DC-based change management consulting company, seeks bright, motivated, and intellectually curious young professionals for its on-going internship program, and is currently accepting applications from candidates to start immediately!

During the internship, candidates will learn how to perform the following activities:

- Conduct research on current opportunities within M Powered Strategies' capability set
- Perform data and contract analysis on open market data to identify new and upcoming opportunities
- Work closely with corporate managers to conduct outreach to customers to learn more about their goals and objectives
- Support the development of nascent, upcoming service offerings
- Take liberty in exploring other topics of interest relevant to your unique strengths

Successful candidates will be offered a position with the following terms:

- Part Time – Roughly 10-15 hours a week.
- Paid – $10.00 an hour.
- Fixed Term – One or two semesters in length.
- Flexible Scheduling – Allows you to focus on school work.
- Training – Comprehensive orientation, on-the-job training, and access to weekly corporate trainings as well.

Apply Now!

To apply, complete the following application:

<http://goo.gl/forms/uYNKLtQwMU>

